

From the Pastor's Pen

We've heard it said many times that "Time Flies When You are Having Fun." I can utter those words from every part of my life as one of the quickest years of my life has come to an end. I have spent the year doing the "Leadership L's: Listening, Laughing, Loving, and Learning."

Following a short "courtship," a year ago, you extended to me a "call" to be your Pastor. We had spent time talking to people and doing our "homework." You had talked to my references, and I had talked to people who knew Oakland Church. You had talked to former church members and I had talked to former Pastors. During our courtship we began to see that God might be up to something... something special. We found ourselves entering into a relationship of faith, hope, and trust.

Unlike some church leaders who enter like the proverbial "bull in a china shop," with disregard to the past, nor the feelings of the present, I chose to take some special time to listen to you, laugh with you, love on you, and learn about you. It has been a special time for me and I hope for you, too.

As I was led to believe and have come to genuinely understand, you are easy to love! We have shared some special times and some difficult ones, too! It is never easy to walk with loved ones through the sunset of their lives; it is never easy to see fractures develop in family relationships; it is never easy to say good-bye to folks as they head off to college or ministry settings...

On the other hand, it is wonderful to welcome old friends back home while hearing, "Oakland has a special place in my life, and it's great to be back!" Or, spending time with people in ministry settings like the Carpenters for Christ, students in Greenville, SC at MFuge, or our very own on-campus Consignment and Fall Festival Ministries.

One of my very favorite times this year has been reconnecting with former pastors like David and Judy Bailey, Darrell and Cheri Wise, Steve and Maureen Smith, Joe Stanley, and 92 year-old Henry Lankford. We have the privilege of their "Ministry DNA" on the life of Oakland Baptist Church and are true beneficiaries of their sacrifice and commitment as far back as 65 years!

One of my most wonderful recollections of the past year was hearing the words, "you sure make it fun to go to church!" That blessed my heart as church should be a fun place... a place to enjoy, a place to bring your friends, and a place to worship God!

So... another year is dawning in our lives... may the joy of the Lord be evident in our lives as we learn from one another while looking to God for our direction towards ministry in the future...

It's a joy to serve Jesus as your Pastor,
Rev Kev

FALL CONSIGNMENT SALE - - The last week of September

The Youth will work sorting children's clothes and toys to help out their church and community.

This will be an awesome event for OBC Youth to make connections with other young Christians in the area through worship, friendly competition and food. It will be a lock-in that includes multiple youth groups. We will grow together as a group as we grow with others in the body of Christ. Details are to follow.

Many blessings,
Ali

ALMA HUNT STATE MISSIONS OFFERING free to live--- The annual offering for Virginia missions was named for Alma Hunt (1909-2008), a native Virginian who was known worldwide for her missions service and her unswerving dedication to the cause of Christ.

The offering provides funding for all WMUV missions and ministries and makes possible other special ministries, outreach projects, and initiatives not funded through regular streams of giving (but uniquely connected to Virginia Baptists). Since 1976, this offering has been a joint venture of Woman's Missionary Union of Virginia (WMUV) and the Baptist General Association of Virginia (BGAV) and Virginia Baptist Mission Board (VBMB). The annual goal and allocation of funds are directed by a committee composed of equal representation from the WMUV Board of Trustees and the BGAV Executive Board.

When you give to the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions, you are equipping those who seek to share with others how God has set them free to live and serve.

The 2011 Prayer Guide places emphasis on our very own RuraLove Ministries and Warehouse sponsored by the churches of Goshen. We helped 706 families in our area last year. A portion of the Alma Hunt State Missions Offering will be supporting this thriving and necessary ministry, especially in our community's time of need.

Mark your calendar now so you won't miss this opportunity to connect with other Virginia Baptists at the 188th Annual Meeting of the Baptist General Association of Virginia. The Freedom of Religious Liberty

Many people know that our Religious Liberty is protected by the First Amendment of the Bill of Rights, but do you actually know what it says? Amendment 1: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances." This amendment is also pointed to as the reason for supporting the separation of church and state, a principle that is very important to Virginia Baptists.

To find out more about the Virginia Baptist position on separation of church and state, read about it in the publication, On These Truths We Stand.

The Baptist Joint Committee (BJC), a VMBM ministry partner, is an education and advocacy organization operating in Washington, D.C., fighting to uphold the historic Baptist principle of religious freedom. The Religious Liberty Council of the BJC is an association of individuals that works to provide education about and advocacy for religious freedom and separation of church and state. Watch as Mercer University President William D. Underwood delivers the keynote address at the 2010 Religious Liberty Council Luncheon, "A Christian Nation: But Which Christianity?"

Holy Land Experience

Would you like to have a life-changing and never to be forgotten experience? It is our joy to invite you to join us on a trip to the Bible Lands where you will find a new dimension in understanding Christian history and the life of our Lord. We will visit places where Jesus walked, lived, taught, performed miracles, where He was crucified and raised from the dead. We will take a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee, worship in the Garden of Gethsemane, and much more. Contact Mike Durham for more information at 540.894.4234.

Hope your plans include coming to the Women's Get-Away on November 4-5 or 5-6. Registration opened August 1. Check out the website for online registration at wmuv.org/getaway
